The Senate spent over two hours arguing the House bill to authorize the State to issue 4 per cent. bonds and let the counties have the proceeds on 5 per cent. bonds for road building, and finally defeated the bill, 28 to 19. —uring the heated discussion there were vigorous complaints by Senators Barnes and Thorne, especially, that State officers were too active in lobby work for this measure. Thorne declared, amid the American Tobacco Company, the insurance companies and all the rest of so-called special interests "skinned a mile." The principal opposition to the measure was the election bond less that might. measure was the election bond issue, that might endanger the State's credit. Bonds issued might reach $16,000,000, it was asserted.

Youth Receives Injuries Which Later Result in His Death.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va. March 2 .- Clyde Fogus, a seventeen-year-old youth, was blown up with dynamite at Daleville yesterday afternoon, and died shortly afterward. He was engaged in blowing holes in the ground with dynamite to set out fruit trees, and had with him the dynamite caps in a wash pan, and some fire in another receptacle.

After he had set a hole he picked up the pan of dynamite caps, to move to another place, and in some way explosion followed. His brother and two other men were at work, and witnessed the explosion. They picked him up.

Some of his fingers were blown off, and he was cut badly all over the upper portion of his body. Some of the he was internally injured. brother ran up he cried out; "Open my
